

PUBLIC LEADER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1897.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEADER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Shipments careless, false, or other public statements where a fee is charged, and for obtaining notices, regardless of receipt, etc. The LEADER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the inevitable rule. This, however, does not include:

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church notices, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rates for business notices in THE LEADER are 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local notice in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—$100 times—the bill is $100. When he finds out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an ineffectual "Now, to clarify this matter, no notice will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around."

All matters for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEADER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

A Satisfactory Shop to Deal In!

No garment leaves our house that is not satisfactory to us. This is the chief reason they are satisfactory to you. No matter what price suit you buy we do not permit you to take it away until we are perfectly satisfied that it is perfect in its entirety. That our efforts in that line are appreciated is fully evidenced by the hundreds who have visited our house in the past week.

Our Crash and Homespun Suits!

at $3.90, $5 and $7! are great advertisers. They proved the hit of the season.

Our Line of Cheviot, Cassimere and Serge Suits for Men, Boys and Children is yet quite large. No matter what you want we can please you. Considering the high quality, you will find Prices Very Reasonable.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEADER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

WHITE STRAIGHT—FAIR;
BLUE—RAINY OR FOG;
WITH HAZEN ABOVE—WILL WARMER
ETC.
IF HAZEN'S BENEATH—COLDER WILL BE!
Unless black's shows—no change we'll see

The above forecasts are made for a period of twenty-four hours, ending at 5 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Mr. Lee Hauke and Miss Cora Lovry, two of Maysville's well known young people, will marry on the 14th proximo.

The Court of Appeals has overruled the petition for a rehearing in the case of Pugh vs. the C. and O. Railway, taken up from Lewis county.

HAPPILY WEDDED

A Cincinnati Gentleman United to a Maysville Lady.

Yesterday afternoon the handsome and ever-hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Cox was the scene of a pleasant gathering, assembled to witness the nuptials of one of Maysville's worthiest daughters.

Halfway and parlor and dining-room were festooned with sprays of living green, filmy lace shut out the sunshine, and in the semi-twiglight about fifty guests witnessed the beautiful and impressive ceremony which welded two hearts and two destinies into one.

Promptly at 2:30 the Rev. D. C. Chapin of the Church of the Nativity appeared in the parlor, clad in the vestments of his holy office; at once every voice was hushed, and soon the groom and bride were ushered in.

Taking position in front of the Minister, the latter read the beautiful marriage service, and soon pronounced the words which made Mr. Charles G. Lender and Miss Sophia B. Albert man and wife.

Following came well wishes for the popular bride and earnest congratulations for the fortunate groom.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Katharine Albert of this city and a sister of Mrs. George L. Cox, and numbers her friends by the score. She was elegantly attired in a traveling costume of brown, and presented a handsome appearance.

The groom is a prominent business man of Cincinnati, and has prepared a cozy home on Walnut Hills, where they will reside.

After congratulations a bounteous collation was served, and at 4:35 Mr. and Mrs. Lender left over the C. and O. for their home at Cincinnati.

Among those present from a distance were Mr. Francis Woodard of Parkersburg, W. Va.; Mrs. Thomas B. Horton of Cincinnati; Mrs. Martha Power and Miss Andella Power of Sharondale, O.; and Mrs. C. B. Hudgins of Rome, Ga., the latter a sister of the bride.

Flemingsburg 18, Maysville 9.

Mrs. John G. Miller died at Manchester of cancer of the breast, aged 69.

The M. E. Church at Ripley will give an excursion to the Zoo next Tuesday.

Henry S. Hart, Teller of the First National Bank of Owensboro, has been arrested, charged with the embezzlement of $2,190 of the Bank's funds.

A little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Knowles of Manchester was severely scalded, Friday last, by falling into a weak boiler of scalding hot water.

Dr. Thomas Vickers, who was recently deposed as Superintendent of the Public Schools at Portsmouth, will in a few weeks take the position of associate Editor of The Daily Tribune of that City.

Attorneys will demand payment of the insurance policy, amounting to $12,000, upon the life of Treasurer Tate. They state that they have no positive proof of his death, but rely upon the presumption of death after seven years' disappearance.

Mr. Francis Woodard of Parkersburg, W. Va., who has for some days been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Cox, has been for three years a Cadet at West Point. He was to have graduated this year, but was unfortunately taken ill a few weeks ago and had gone to Cincinnati to submit to an operation for an affection of the glands of his neck.

ANOTHER HORROR

Frank Greigston Instantly Killed by the Maysville Accommodation.

HIS FACE HORRIBLY CRUSHED.

Another horrible accident occurred on the C. and O. Railroad last evening in the West End of the city.

Frank Greigston, who resides on West Second street, was struck by the Maysville Accommodation, which reaches this city at 7:30 p. m., and was instantly killed.

Greigston had been drinking during the day, quarreling with his family and making things generally disagreeable to those around him.

About the time the above-mentioned train was due here last evening he was seen on the railroad, but no particular attention was paid to him.

After the train sounded its accustomed whistle below the city limits, Greigston was on the track walking down the road. His head was hung down as though in deep study, a manner he usually assumed when drinking, and when the train approached he looked up, saw it and continued his walk.

The train was in charge of Conductor Smith and Engineer Demarcus, and walking as Greigston was—on the extreme right between the rails—he was not seen by the Engineer in time to save his life.

Greigston made no effort to jump from his dangerous position, and the engine struck him with full force, knocking him about fifty feet.

The accident happened in front of the home of Mr. John Tolle, whose wife saw the actions of the unfortunate man before the train was on him.

Mr. Tolle at once went to the place where the body lay.

The coroner was notified, and after an examination of the injuries it was found that the left arm and ankle were broken, and the face horribly crushed. His right hip was also badly bruised.

The remains were taken in charge by Undertaker Coughlin, who removed them to his late home.

It is thought by some that Greigston purposely placed himself in the way of the train, taking that means of ending his life.

He leaves a family consisting of a wife and two sons, one of the latter being employed at the Maysville Cotton Mills.

Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.

WILLIAM DAVIS.

Mr. Isaac Horner, proprietor of the Burton House, Burton, W. Va., and one of the most widely known men in the state was cured of rheumatism after three years of suffering. He says: "I have not sufficient command of language to convey any idea of what I suffered; my physician told me that nothing could be done for me and my friends were fully convinced that nothing but death would relieve me of my suffering. In June, 1894, Mr. Evans, then salesman for the Wheeling Drug Co., recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm. At this time my foot and limb were swollen to more than double their normal size and it seemed to me my leg would burst, but soon after I began using the Pain Balm the swelling began to decrease, the pain to leave, and now I consider that I am entirely cured. For sale by J. Jas. Wool, Drugist."

Belt Bargains.

We place on sale today seventy-five Belts, choice 75c. These Belts have sold for $1.50 and $2. They are first-class bargains and warrant to wear.

WE CAN'T ALL GO...

.....SUMMERING!

To the mountains or sea—indeed, most of us are stay-at-homes—but you can lighten summer trials and temper the heat by a modest investment in the feather-light French Dimities we offer just now.

You know the kind we mean. They are almost as sheer as Organza, with a satin gloss that throws out the figures in beautiful relief. Early in the season they sold for 25c., but today the price-shearer clips 10c. and you have a choice of 15 different patterns of 25c. French Dimity for 15c. This price is for today and the days to come.

E. Z. WAIST.

Have you tried it? All one fabric. Will not shrink. Buttons warranted not to pull off. Every mother appreciates its value; every child loves its comfort. Price 25c.

HAILSTONES

Weighting From 12 to 16 Ounces Fall at Topeka, Kan.

Not a Dozen Buildings in the City
That Are Not Damaged.

Roofs of Street Cars Pierced—A Dozen Persons Injured—Hailstones—Dogs and Hired Killed in the Streets.
The Damage Will Be Heavy.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 23.—The worst hail storm known in the history of Kansas struck this city shortly after 6 o'clock Thursday night. Hailstones weighing 12 to 16 ounces stripped the trees of their foliage, smashed window panes on every hand, including finest plate glass store fronts, cut down telegraph and telephone wires and riddled buildings and inflicted unprecedented damage throughout the city. Dogs were struck in the street and instantly killed. Horses were knocked to their knees by the great and dash away in mad flight. Runaways occurred throughout the city. When the fury of the storm had passed, dead birds were found everywhere. A heavy wind and terrific lightning accompanied the storm.

Topeka Thursday night looked like a city that has withstood a siege of war.
There are not a dozen buildings in the town that are not almost windowless, and many roofs were eaten in. The roofs of eight street cars also were pierced. The damage wrought can better be imagined when it is known that the hailstones ranged in size from that of a hen's egg to an ostrich egg, and that 30 minutes after the storm the hailstones were picked up which measured 14 inches in circumference.
Surgeons are busy dressing the wounds of persons injured in the storm, and reports of injuries continue to be received. Many were hurt in runaways on the streets.

The following are among the most seriously hurt: Frank Brainerd, hickman, skull fractured; D. Henderson, freightman, skull fractured; Roy Wilson, leg broken in a runaway; Mrs. Mary Hughes, arm broken in a runaway;
D. Kie, back smashed; Miss Anna Fenton, head cut; Geo. Hill, leg skull fractured; Chas. Johnson, struck on head and rendered unconscious; Polkman Kilgus, hit on the head, protecting head with hands; Miss Cornie, badly wounded on head; in hospital. Hackman Frank Brainerd was unconscious and will probably die.

The damage can not be estimated, but it will amount to thousands. Window glass is already at a premium here, and Thursday night three carnages were ordered from the city.
Street car traffic is stopped and electric lights are out, owing to demolition of the electric system.

Dying in a Basement.
CHICAGO, June 23.—Julius Moncrief King, related by blood and marriage to a large part of the nobility of England, lies dying in a basement room in the two-story house at 210 Calumet avenue. The dying woman is a cousin of the present Sir John Moncrief, and she is the wife of a man who made such brilliant marriages. Mrs. King is 71 years of age and was born in Scotland.
She lives with her daughter, Mrs. E.
H. Cummings. She is the widow of Robert King, who was a member of the cabinet of Queen Victoria, and a brother of Washington King, who was mayor of St. Louis.

Gov. Atkinson Married.
WHEELING, W. Va., June 23.—At 9 o'clock Thursday night John George Wealey Atkinson, of West Virginia, was united in marriage at Clarkburg, West Va., to Miss Mary Ellen Camden, daughter of the late John H.
Camden, widow of the late wealthy Judge G. D. Camden. The ceremony took place in the presence of only a few intimate friends, and had been previously announced for Thursday night, the public understanding that it would occur Saturday.

Intense Heat in Kansas.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 23.—The most intense heat that has prevailed in central Kansas since the beginning of the season has been experienced for the past four days, the thermometer averaging 100 and finally reaching 104 degrees. Many creatures are suffering from the heat, and at some points farmers have been compelled to abandon their harvest work. In the vicinity of Larned it was hot enough to curl the leaves of vegetation.

Reported Lynching Here.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 23.—A report telegraphed from Paducah, Ky., of the secret lynching at Princeton, Wednesday night, of Miller, the friend who assaulted a little girl at Ed-dysville, is erroneous. Inquiries made at both Paducah and Princeton showed the report that the man was at both places and no lynching had occurred.

Editor Dies Ill.
NEW YORK, June 23.—Chas. A. Dana, editor of the Sun, is ill at his country home in Glen Cove, L. I. He has been suffering from catarrh of the stomach, but is somewhat better, and Thursday was able to leave his bed. His physician has ordered him to the mountains for a few weeks for a change of air.

Angell Will Not See Terrell.
ANX ANKOR, Mich., June 23.—Dr. Angell, minister to Turkey, denies the report from Washington that he is going to London to confer with Minister Terrell, while en route to Constantinople.
He says he will go to Paris, thence to Constantinople.

Premature Discharge of a Blast.
CHICAGO, June 23.—The premature discharge of a blast Thursday at the water crib in Lake Michigan, which street killed one workman and is said to have wounded a number of others.

Springing a Graduate.
SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 23.—Forty-two graduated Thursday morning from the Springfield high school at the Grand opera house.

THE PARADE

Of the Confederate Veterans in Nashville, Tenn.

More Than Ten Thousand Old Soldiers Were in the Ranks.

The Largest Demonstration in the History of the Union—Thousands of People From the Surrounding Territory Viewed the Procession.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 23.—The parade of the United Confederate Veterans, which more than ten thousand veterans took part, was the largest in the history of the organization and one of the greatest ever seen in this city. The regular and special trains arriving in the morning brought thousands of people from cities and towns in Tennessee and other states, and thousands more to the city in wagons and on horseback from points in the country around Nashville. The streets were densely crowded, and every available space from which a view of the procession could be obtained was occupied long before the order to march was given by Gen. W. H. Jackson, the chief of the parade. The march was headed by a detachment of police commanded by Chief Clark. Then came Gen. Jackson and his staff. Gen. J. B. Gordon, the commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, and his staff, followed close behind. Each division was headed by the general in command, and the sponsors and maids of honor rode in open carriages, while others were decorated with flags. There were a number of bands in the parade, and the air rendered by them was followed by loud applause from the spectators. The stars and stripes and the confederate flag were conspicuous
on the long line that reached the central square. The procession was headed

Nashville, Tenn.

More Than Ten Thousand Old Soldiers Were in the Ranks.

The Largest Demonstration in the History of the Union—Thousands
of People From the Surrounding
Territory Viewed the Procession.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 23.—The
parade of the United Confederate Veterans, which more than ten
thousand veterans took part, was
the largest in the history of the organization and one of the greatest ever seen in this city. The regular
and special trains arriving in the morning
brought thousands of people from
cities and towns in Tennessee and
other states, and thousands more
to the city in wagons and on horseback from points in the country around Nashville. The streets were densely crowded, and every available
space from which a view of the procession could be obtained was occupied
long before the order to march was given by Gen. W. H. Jackson, the chief of the parade. The march was headed by a detachment of police commanded by Chief Clark. Then came Gen. Jackson
and his staff. Gen. J. B. Gordon, the commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, and his staff, followed close behind. Each division was headed by the general in command, and the sponsors and maids of
honor rode in open carriages, while others were decorated with flags. There were a number of bands in the parade,
and the air rendered by them was
followed by loud applause from the spectators. The stars and stripes and
the confederate flag were conspicuous
on the long line that reached the central square. The procession was headed
